1. JURISDICTION. State the grounds for filing this case in the United States Court of Federal Claims. The United States Court of Federal Claims has limited jurisdiction (see e.g., 28 U.S.C. §§ 1491-1509).

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has placed a Federal Tax Lien of $706,538.79 on my property (see exhibit B). The IRS did not and does not have jurisdiction to do so (see exhibit A). I have a United States Tax Court order signed by the United States Tax Court stating the IRS does not have jurisdiction in the years the lien is filed, (see exhibit A). I have been and still am being damaged by the United States because the United States is still in contempt of court.

- 3. PREVIOUS LAWSUITS. Have you begun other lawsuits in state or federal court dealing with the same or similar facts involved in this action? ☒ Yes ☐ No

If yes, please list cases: 15-1116T

- 4. STATEMENT OF THE CLAIM. State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how the United States is involved. You must state exactly what the United States did, or failed to do, that has caused you to initiate this legal action. Be as specific as possible and use additional paper as necessary.

The United States is involved by not releasing the $706,538.79 lien after receiving the United States Federal Tax Court Order. The United States is obligated to follow the United States Tax Court order to remove any liens that was placed in error, or pay for damage that is being done against the person that was innocent to the charges. The damages have been going on for years. The United States has failed to remove this lien so I can not use my asset for anything because the lien was and is placed against me and the IRS did not and still does not have jurisdiction.

The United States is involved knowingly and mulishly and should be required to pay for not following the United States Tax Court Order. The United States must be held to a standard that all people must be held to. The United States filed this lien after the United States Tax Court signed the jurisdiction order. It is the United States Claims Court's job to keep the United States honest and must not allow the United States to damage people with out any remedy or recourse of the people. The United State Claims Court must hold the United States to the laws they write.

I am entitled to this judgment for the United States has damaged me and is still damaging me. I am entitled to this judgment for the United States has broken the law and should have this judgment rendered in my favor.

5. RELIEF. Briefly state exactly what you want the court to do for you.

I want this court to give me relief by signing an order that gives me a judgment against the United States in the amount of $706,538.79.
